Francis C. Rolland

Coldwell Banker
Serving you Since 1985

As an international finance manager for 10 yrs., then a business administration teacher in Senegal, Africa, I never imagined how life-changing it would be to start a real estate career here in the Bay Area, in 1985.

Bringing together all my knowledge and expertise in the fields of finance, organization, construction, legal, psychology & marketing, I had then an opportunity to help people go through one of the scariest experiences of their lives in a safe and intelligent way, while educating them & explaining what was going on.

I only hope that I have brought to the table as much as I have received in the process, which includes so many friends and rich relationships. I wish to express my deepest gratitude to all the wonderful people who used my services. A bientôt!
